

Town of New Baltimore
Antique Machinery & Agricultural Festival
June 3 & 4 2006
15th annual Free Admission
Antique Tractor & Garden Tractor Pull

Van Etten Farm, New Baltimore Rt 9W to Aquetuct Rd., Left On Deans Mill, right on W. Deans Mill, Right on Saw Mill. Open 8a.m. To 6 p.m.

Browse thru assorted vendor displays and Agricultural exhibits on open air field.

Weekend events: Silent Auction , John Scott's SawMill, Chainsaw Art by Peggy, Blacksmitting by John Earl, visit the educational display set up by DEC, Leapin Lizards and Rockin Reptiles by the Science and Technology Childrens Museum of Troy, craft tent for kids, horse drawn carriage rides, touch n go planes, hit and miss engine demos. Pie and Pudding eating contests. Reptile collector Dean Davis will speak on reptiles in our backyards! Radio Controlled model planes in flight.

Musical entertainment will include: Squeeze Play, The One Man Band , and Sierra.

Food Vendors: Barbecue by Bob Rebusman of Locker Room Sports Bar, Frozen desserts by Guido, Breakfast, Lunch and Snacks by Cornell Hook and Ladder Fire Dept. & Ladies Aux. Covered dish dinner Saturday for exhibitors and vendors, with music by County Line Rebels. Dance Demo by Country Two Step Champion Tom Hourigan.

Festival is sponsored by the Town of New Baltimore and Greene County Promotions and Economic Development Office, Stewarts and over 50 local businesses in Ravena and Greene County. Security and Handicapped transportation provided by Albany Greene ATV Club. All tractors are required to have wheelie bars in all contests. For information call: 756-3517 or 756-2793

Scheduled events June 3: Garden Tractor Pull, DEC display, Leapin Lizards program for children, Music under the big tent by Squeeze Play, The One Man Band, and Sierra, Dance Demo by Tom Hourigan & students , Silent Auction .

June 4 : Antique Tractor Pull, Silent Auction under Big Tent.

FOR OTHER EVENTS & PLACES TO STAY VISIT US ON THE WEB AT WWW.GREENETOURISM.COM

